

Zim's at 12-Mile Corner was a Rockwood Water customer, as well as a satellite pay station where customers could pay their water bills.

Zim's circa 1938. Fryers were a popular item when Zim's opened its doors in 1938. Photo courtesy Gresham Historical Society Research Library image #1304

Photo courtesy Gresham Historical Society Research Library image #858

Zim's circa 1950. Photo courtesy of PdxHistory.com

Zim's circa 1963. Photo courtesy Gresham Historical Society Research Library image #1303

Photo courtesy Gresham Historical Society Research Library image #1302